Final week of pre-Christmas activities starts tomorrow night when Santa Claus rides again, Sunday the Lions

Whitewater Protests New Highway Plan

Under leadership of Paul Runge of Whitewater, a petition has been dispatched to county supervisors protesting proposed relocation of Highway 99 in Whitewater and Garnet and copies have been sent to Division

Supervisors vote full approval of highway—say no protests heard.—See Page 2, Cols. 1-2.

Highway Engineer E. Q. Sullivan San Bernardino, Charles H. Purcell, director of public works at Sacramento and the department of the interior at Washington.

The petition, generously signed, sets forth that property values will be seriously affected if the proposed realignment is carried out, that the state already owns property to widen the existing highway and that taxpayers' money would be wasted to build the new road whereas it would be thousands of dollars cheaper to widen the present route.

Supervisors Monday voted full approval of the new road declaring there would be few protests.

Benches to the left. Settees to the right. But they have got to stand. It's a call to battle. A summons to fight. Our firemen can't be banned.

Seems that a composition writer's work, like a woman's, is never done. . . . After months of needling and with the assistance of the Business Women, benches were restored to P. C. drive from one end to the other. . . . A place for tired people to rest and cogitate. . . . But no sooner are they in place than a Village institution practically goes out. . . . That's the bench where the firemen used to sit and await the call to duty when not drying out hose or polishing equipment or playing checkers. . . . It was a grand place to stop and pass the time of day. . . . A great place to sit in the cool of a summer evening while awaiting completion of police questioning of someone who had let daylight into someone else. . . . It was the statistical center of town. . . . That's where I used to go to find out how many automobiles were cursing the Drive in the course of an hour. . . . A center of information and a finger on the pulse of the tourist business. . . . But now it ain't. . . . It's like losing an old friend to go by there without gaining some valuable if perhaps, useless, piece of information.

BILL FADDEN says that Los Angeles cross walks are marked: "Don't Let Death Take Your Holiday" and thinks it is one of the best safety reminders he has seen for some time. . . . Believes Palm Springs ought to follow suit. . . . It might help here but not as much as in Los Angeles. . . . People do not use the crosswalks here very much. . . . They jaywalk. . . . Bill also says he has a friend who is going into the smog insurance business. . . . "Look what I've done for Palm Springs!" is his slogan. . . . The same unpleasant chap who irked me last July by asking: "Is it hot enough for you?" now is curious about my opinion of the relative depth of the thermometer. . . . If he went where I believe he should, he wouldn't worry about where he left his overcoat.

BACK FROM Death Valley where he attended the centennial pageant and loaded his pockets with the coin of the realm came Harry Oliver. . . . Said as a publisher, he's one of the best news boys in the business. . . . Sold Desert

Traditional Parade Tuesday

Little Bear is going to lead her 20th annual Santa Claus parade up Palm Canyon drive next Tuesday evening.

It will be in the traditional style, cowboys and cowgirls escorting Santa riding in a stage coach, just as it was first staged back in December, 1929, when the Village was much younger.

At that time the ceremonies centered at the little church which stood at the corner of Anderson road and Palm Canyon drive. And among those who will witness the parades, said Little Bear, will be Mrs. Harriet Henderson, who was one of the originators of the Santa Claus parade idea 20 years ago.

LOS COMPADRES club members will serve as a cowboy escort for Santa in the annual parade and he will ride in a stage coach driven by Jim Chandler and provided by Trav Rogers. Los Compadres Chicos, the junior riding club led by Charley Driskell, will also be in the parade.

School Party Next Thursday

Christmas and Santa Claus for the school children of Palm Springs will again come this year through the courtesy of the Business Women's club with the appearance of St. Nick December 22 at the schools in the Village.

Plans for Concert Series In Palm Springs Revealed

Palm Springs is to have an annual concert series! This fact was made known late yesterday with the announcement of details on the series from Andrew Lester, president of the Allied Artists association.

Trav Rogers Named Head Of February Rodeo When New Association Elects

In preparation for the coming rodeo, February 4 and 5, Palm Springs Rodeo association which will stage the event, met Wednesday, elected directors and events chairman and started active plans for the program.

Barney Hinkle, one of the directors of the new non-profit corporation announced that Trav Rogers, including his booming "hello, hello, hello" has been chosen chairman of the forthcoming rodeo. Assisting him will be Frank Bogert in charge of publicity and advertising and Phil Delano as collaborator. Publicity and advertising copy will be handled by Bill Rashall.

NEW DIRECTORS of the organization are Jimmy Malone, Thunderbird Ranch resident, Ray Simmons, who has had considerable experience with rodeos and horse shows, Barney Hinkle, Ernie Alschuler, George Rasmussen and Earl Strebe.

Immediately upon assuming chairmanship of the 1950 rodeo, Rogers announced that Andrew Jauregui will furnish the rampaging outlaw horses, Brahma bulls and calves for the show as he did last year.

FRANK BOGERT added that the event has already received the sanction of the International Rodeo association thereby assuring the best riders in the country as contestants. Also, said Bogert, the Rodeo Cowboy's association has approved the show.

"Nothing in the way of money, publicity and advertising will be spared in making the rodeo this year the biggest and the most colorful in the history of Palm Springs," said Rogers.

RODEO CHIEF—Trav Rogers was named this week as general chairman of the Palm Springs Rodeo association.

ANNUAL FALL PARTY OF C. OF C. MERRY AFFAIR

With Mayor Charles Farrell presiding and doing the introductions, the annual fall party of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at the Chi Chi was a gay and merry affair with the only restraint in evidence being placed on speech-making.

Almost 150 Villagers gathered in the Blue Room for the gay affair to enjoy an outstanding show by Irving Schuman's staff of entertainers, to partake of the excellent dinner and to meet the new officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

Ted McKinney, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was given the month's outstanding citizen award for work done by that group, as one of the features of the evening.

SAFETY PATROL WINNERS GET REWARDS TOMORROW

Seventy youngsters of the School Safety Patrol are going to picnic tomorrow at Cahulla school and winners receive their awards for outstanding service. Hours for the picnic, according to George Bond, school transportation superintendent who supervises the patrol's work and who designed the system which has given Palm Springs an enviable safety record, are from 2 to 5 p. m.

Auto Destroyed In Morning Fire

A fire at 6:41 o'clock Tuesday morning on the reservation off Ramon road called out the local department to combat the blaze in a 1940 Chrysler convertible, said to belong to Willie Baker.

Square Dancing Given In Adult Education

Square dancing instruction every Monday night in the high school auditorium is being sponsored by the adult education program. Classes start at 7:30 and last until 10:30. Instructor and caller is Wayland Reynolds.

Carl Lykken Will Launch Chest Drive

Civic Worker Is Named in Charge Of Advance Gifts

Carl G. Lykken, an active worker in Boy Scout and Community Chest projects for many years, has accepted the position of Advance Gifts Chairman for the 1950 campaign to be waged in January, it was announced today by President R. W. Peterson of the Palm Springs Community Chest.

Chairman Lykken's committee will set forth on its important task—that of raising more than half of the entire $37,500 goal—soon after January 1. Actual date of the start will be chosen at a meeting of the campaign committee in the near future.

The Advance Gifts committee prospects are larger contributors, both firms and individuals.

Personnel of the other divisions of the Chest is being rapidly chosen, the Chest president said. The general solicitation, including the business firms, residences, apartments and hotels, schools and public employees, are operated by the Welfare and Friendly Aid which directs the broad program of charity throughout this area.

Tentative plans call for an intensified one-day campaign through the business district. The drive will be started at a "kickoff" breakfast and every effort will be made to complete the work by closing time that day.

Agencies in the Chest this year are Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Desert Museum, Boys Club, Health and Welfare Center and the Youth Center. The latter two are operated by the Welfare and Friendly Aid which directs the broad program of charity throughout this area.

Dr. Chapman Wins 50 Year Alumni Honors

Dr. Vernon A. Chapman, well known Village eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, got a surprise yesterday—and a happy one. Mail came an imposing looking envelope containing a 50-year certificate from the Alumni Association of the University of Maryland honoring him for "a half century of service to the community."

"Now, I'm honored and feel happy—but also wonder if I shouldn't feel a bit blue, too—think of it, fifty years!"

Preparations for Second Annual Fiesta Complete

Clicking castanets and the lilt of Spanish music will set the tempo for the second annual feast to "Our Lady of Guadalupe" at American Legion Hall tomorrow night at 7:30.

The event, a benefit for Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic church on the Reservation, Rev. Ramon Klumbis, pastor, has created a beehive of activity among members of the Mexican Colony, sponsoring the celebration, who are busily preparing costumes, rehearsing dance steps and selling tickets for the event. The food will be served in the patio adjoining the American Legion Hall and throughout the dinner,

Mayor Starts Safety Valve Plan for City

Regular Sessions To Hear "Beefs" On New Program

In the interest of town peace and harmony and in the interest of better relationship between different Village organizations with the formal city government, Mayor Charles Farrell this week announced the formation of a weekly or bi-weekly luncheon meeting of a few of the city officials with one or two members of each major organization for the purpose of airing grievances and "spouting off steam."

On the basis that too much discussion goes on in the Village that does not reach the ears of the mayor, council or city manager, Mayor Farrell has contacted presidents of the Chamber of Commerce, Retail Merchants Association, Hotel and Apartment Owners Association, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Desert Circus and other leading organizations in the town for their reactions to such regular meetings wherein they might forward ideas presented by their individual clubs and the mayor has met with enthusiastic reception to the idea in every instance.

"VERY OFTEN," Mayor Farrell said, "by the time a story reaches us of what is needed by the city or what we, as the law-making body of the city should do, it is distorted or slanted in such a way that we do not get a true picture of the reactions of a cross-section of the village.

"It would appear that the best way to handle this is to sit down and discuss such ideas that need to be aired by the leaders of the representative groups. In that way we can get quicker council action where that is necessary," he said.

FORMULATING the plan with City Manager Russell Rink the officials decided that the luncheon meetings would be "Dutch," or everyone buy his own meals with a possible change around of meeting places at each session. First will be at the Racquet Club immediately after the holidays, the mayor said.

TO ASSIST in the program, Manager Bill Dunkerley of the chamber announced that the recent election of officers of that organization, in which Harold Hicks had been named first vice president, automatically made Hicks Public Relations vice president.

Duties of this particular job, Dunkerley said, placed Hicks in the exact position of acting on the council which the chamber decided to call the Community Coordinating council. Hicks will act with Herbert and the city leaders in assisting in the so-called "safety valve work," the chief aim of the informal luncheons.

Lions to Erect City Christmas Tree on Sunday

Palm Springs Lions club Sunday will erect a large Community Christmas tree at Ramon road and Palm Canyon drive with George Oliver and Fire Chief Bill Leonello in charge of the affair.

As in the years past, the Lions club will donate the tree and decorate it. The club is paying all expenses from a fund provided for the purpose and President Roy Colegate of the club has issued an appeal to all able-bodied Lions to be on hand to lend a hand.

District Rotary Convention Will Be Here in April

Announcement was made yesterday by Conventions Chairman Frank Ewing of the Chamber of Commerce that the southern district of Rotary International in California convention will be held in Palm Springs next April.

After discussions this week with Frank V. Crane, district governor of District 162, which includes the area from Long Beach straight east and south to the Arizona and Mexico borders, decision was made.

DISTRICT 162 includes 58 Rotary clubs representing more than 4000 members and it is expected that a minimum of 1500 will be present at the convocation with a possibility of twice that many overrunning the Village during the session.

Dates decided upon are April 20-22 which will appeal to the hotel and merchants of town inasmuch as it follows the Easter season, usually known as the dates for the annual out-of-town exodus for vacationers, and fits in well with the chamber's plan of "stretching the season."

Suspect Held in Molesting Case

Elmo Lee Gaskill, 26, was arrested last week by police on charge of violation of section 67A-1 of the penal code, annoying children and lewdness.

Before Judge Eugene Theriault Wednesday he pleaded not guilty and trial was set for next Friday, December 23.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

MANY READERS HAVE ASKED why their tax bills are so much higher this year. A look at the budgets of the various agencies which are supported by a tax on Palm Springs property shows that the increase goes largely to three agencies: the City of Palm Springs, the School District, and the new Hospital District which appears on tax bills for the first time this year. Of the three, Palm Springs city accounts for the largest percentage of the increase. Riverside county gets a fraction less than last year, while the Sanitary and Flood Control districts held their budgets to approximately the same.

It must be remembered that assessments in Riverside county were greatly increased so the rates for the agencies had to be considerably reduced or the amount they would receive on the new assessed valuation would be much more. The Palm Springs city government can levy up to $1.00 per $100 assessed valuation. Although the levy, as we understand it, was only 85 cents this year, the increase in assessed valuations resulted in the city getting about 90 per cent more tax money.

Just why the city needed additional tax money this year should be explained to taxpayers. We can't blame the county government when it is getting less than last year—and most people do not object to an increase for schools—when increased enrollment is considered. The Community hospital could not have been maintained much longer by popular subscription—nor should it; so the levy to provide this vital service should be acceptable to the majority of taxpayers.

We suggest that the city tell the taxpayers where their money is going. And The Desert Sun will be glad to provide whatever space is necessary to publish it. Taxpayers are a lot less inclined to complain if they know how their money is being spent.

FULL APPROVAL GIVEN U. S. 99 FREEWAY PLAN

Full approval of the state division of highways plan to convert Highway 99 into a freeway from Palm Springs junction to a point beyond Garnet was given by supervisors Monday when they voted to instruct Chairman Floyd Gilmore to inform State Highway Engineer George McCoy that they did not consider it necessary to hold public hearings on the plan.

ONLY TWO PROTESTS have been heard so far on the plan.

two Whitewater residents declaring that they were opposed to the relocation of the highway. Sullivan said that he did not believe Whitewater would suffer by re-routing of the highway to eliminate sharp, dangerous curves and ease the grade.

Relocation of the highway by-pass Whitewater and also Garnet, providing, however, easy access to these communities by safe-guarded intersections.

SULLIVAN EMPHASIZED that the road was not yet in the state program and that plans are preliminary. He said relocation north of Palm Springs to eliminate a dangerous curve and bridge east of Whitewater and roadside stands in Garnet would benefit thousands of people in Coachella valley.

NEW TRAFFIC CONTROL—shown above on the occasion of his recent trip to Chicago is Village Police Officer Harry Houghton being shown a new method of night traffic control, use of the Traf-O-Lite. Demonstrating is Traffic Policeman Pat Hughes of the Windy City force, an expert in traffic control.

Chicago's Gift to Village Brings More Traffic Safety

As the result of a motor trip last summer to his former home, Chicago, Police Officer Harry Houghton, assisted by former Village John Pagoria, obtained for the Village two dozen Traf-O-Lites, an innovation in use by Chicago police.

With cash supplied by Illinois State Representative Charles H. Weber, who also maintains a home in Palm Springs, the lights were forwarded to the local department and Chief August Kett-mann is well pleased with the light which is of particular benefit in night traffic control.

Light is described as simulating a flashlight with the exception that it has a longer head of glass or plastic which is of red color all the way around and on the side with the white light in the very center similar to an orthodox flashlight.

The Chicago department recently purchased 1000 of the gadgets.

ALLIED ARTISTS PLAN YEAR'S 'BIGGEST' EVENT

Allied Artists association of Palm Springs is gearing for its biggest general monthly meeting of the year, to be held at Frances Stevens school Tuesday, December 27, under the gavel of President Andrew Lester.

Program Director Albert Babcock has arranged one of the most extensive offerings for this meeting yet held for the benefit of members and friends.

CORNET WOOD, layout designer for the famous animated Bugs Bunny motion pictures will speak as well as give a demonstration of his particular type of art.

Peter Page, last month's headliner at the monthly meeting, will do a repeat performance through popular demand when he sings and accompanies himself on the piano. This month he plans several operatic selections.

ALLEN BOONE, former director-producer of the Douglas Fairbanks-Mary Pickford films and owner of Strongheart, former dog star, will speak on the interesting subject, "Never Had A Failure in Motion Pictures—and Why."

Joine Alderman, famous in Beverly Hills for her artistic salons will speak as will H. M. Rogers, producer of the Tent House Theatre, Village production to start January 3.

Models Humming At Youth Center

"If you have wondered about the prrrrr of motors on Saturday nights, step over the Youth Center and see the little cars doing 60 and 70 miles per hour on the concrete track, and see the tiny planes being flown on the basketball court. Incidentally, you kids from 6 to 60 bring your cars and planes over and use the track," said Leslie Jackson, director of Palm Springs Youth Center. Under the guidance of George Ritter, the activity is buzzing, and more and more planes are being built and more little racers are being purchased and tuned up each week.

The class meets each Saturday evening between the hours of 7 and 10.

Christmas Music And Drama Next Tuesday Evening

Christmas program of music and drama will be given by the music and drama departments of the high school, Tuesday evening at 7:45 at Frances Stevens school auditorium. The program will feature music by the choral groups under the direction of Alexander Hammond, orchestral selections by the high school orchestra under the direction of Gustave Patzner and an original drama in one act by John Schwen-diman and his drama department. This new playlet, written and directed by Mr. Schwen-diman is based on the Christmas story, but the locale, a California mining camp, gives the story freshness and added significance.

The choral selections to be presented by the choir in their new maroon and white robes range from the beautiful Bach chorals to Max Krone's inimitable "We Wish You a Merry Christmas," "Jingle Bells," the best yet, as rendered by the Boys' Glee club and a "swing" version of the Girls' Glee club.

Mr. Patzner's high school orchestra will play the "Cavalier Overture" by Merle Isaac, and "Christmas Fantasy" by E. H. Bergh.

The public is cordially invited to enjoy the program.

The Glee clubs will also sing concerts for the Soroptimists club Tuesday noon and at the Tennis club Thursday noon when the Lion's club will hold their annual Christmas party.

Dance and Ride On Club Program

A busy weekend is anticipated by Los Compadres, local riding club, according to President Bob Bennett, as tomorrow night the club will hold a dance at the clubhouse open to members and guests, and followed the next morning by a breakfast ride with "chow time at 8."

After the breakfast the group will don working clothes for what members hope will be the final push in completing the arena and painting of the inside of the clubhouse.

E. A. Burghardt Taken by Death

Death came Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock to Emil A. Burghardt, Southgate resident, at Cathedral City, attributed to a coronary condition. He was 73 at time of death.

A retired machinist, Burghardt had been in Cathedral City only 10 days at time of death. He is survived by his wife, Louise, son Norman of Glendale and two daughters, Mesdames Ethel Kiehl of Southgate and Doris Astler of Hollywood.

Arrangements were handled by Wiefel's and Son, local morticians, with burial services on Tuesday afternoon at Inglewood.

Crossing Guard Need Studied

Supervisors next Monday will hear a report from California Highway Patrol Captain Ray Hastings on a survey to determine the need for uniformed crossing guards for school children in unincorporated areas.

Patrol officers are now making the study. Supervisor William Slape said. Expenses will be borne by the state.

LEGION POST PREPARING DRIVE FOR PATRIOTIC FLAG DISPLAYS

American Legion, Owen Coffman Post 519, this week made arrangements for a project which has been pending by that organization for some time, the installation of street flags on the curbs on special occasions.

Presented to city council for approval by Commander Hilton McCabe, the idea was met with a good reception.

The flags are to be donated by the local post as a part of the Americanism and Civic Betterment program of that organization. Flags will be uniform and standard and will probably be kept in the custody of the Legion with the installation on patriotic occasions to be undertaken by the Boy Scouts as a project of that organization.

Commander McCabe said that as soon as the council would designate where the placements of the national banners should be there would be a work party organized to drill the holes in the sidewalks and metal caps installed for their protection when not in use. Area to be affected, Commander McCabe said, would be both sides of the street from Alejo to Baristo. Legion was thanked by council for this civic gesture in Americanism and promised to act on the spotting of flag positions in the immediate future.

New Tenthouse Theater Speeded

With the erection of the big tent that will house the Tenthouse Theater performances this week, work is speeded on the many details necessary for the production by Producer H. M. Rogers.

One of the first items to be undertaken in the printing of "Sponsoring Tickets," each being a 10-pass ticket which will allow the bearer 10 admissions to different performances or to one or more performances with guests. Tickets are limited and will be at a reduction of 25 per cent of the full price of 10 admissions. These are to be on sale starting this week with applications by telephone 5242 or to Tenthouse Theater, Box 809, Palm Springs. Rehearsals are due to commence next Tuesday at the theater for the first production, Blithe Spirit, by Noel Coward, commencing January 3 for one week's run. This will be followed by another top attraction the following week. At present, Rogers plans 15 weeks of top New York Equity productions with a change of plays each week.

New Deputy Coroner

Paul S. Miller, former Riverside police officer, was appointed deputy coroner at the request of Coroner Ben S. White this week. He will also act as public administrator.

Ground to be Broken Next Sunday for Jewish Center

Ground-breaking for the Jewish Center, Alejo at Cahulla Rd., will take place this coming Sunday, December 18, at 2 p.m. on the building site with Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin, of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple in Los Angeles, officiating.

Local dignitaries and clergy will be present to welcome the addition of this house of worship to the growing family of faiths in Palm Springs. The public is cordially invited by the members. In celebration of the Jewish Community Center ground-breaking a festive banquet dinner is planned for Sunday evening at the Chi Chi Blue Room. A capacity crowd is anticipated and those wishing reservations should secure them immediately by phoning 2289, according to Hermine Rosin, publicist.

Charity to be Keynote for Tomorrow's Kiddie's Show

Tomorrow's Kiddie Contest at the Plaza theater has been turned over to the Palm Springs Welfare and Friendly Aid society for its annual collection of articles of food for the needy.

Admission to the theater will be by canned goods only. These will be turned over to the society for Christmas distribution.

Contest winners of the past four Saturdays' revues will be presented on the stage tomorrow in competition for cash prizes. To appear are Ninah Bell, Patty and Barbara Newlin, who won the first contest; Scott's Dancing Tots of Cathedral City, who won the second revue; Velma Hager, third contest winner and Lando

Darling Jr., last Saturday's winner.

A delegation from the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society will be present to accept the donations of canned goods as they are presented at the door at 12:30 p.m. Because these canned goods are to be grouped into Christmas baskets and distributed to deserving families, parents are urged to supply their children who will attend tomorrow's Kiddie Matinee with such items as will be suitable for a Christmas table. Although one canned item will be considered sufficient donation for each admission, any additional items will help make a happier Christmas for some needy family.

Busy Schedule At Camera Club

The newly formed camera club at the Youth Center meets each Tuesday evening in the new photographic dark room. Two of Palm Springs' outstanding amateur photographers, Don DuBose and Briant Brush, are conducting the classes.

After the boys have learned developing of the film, printing and enlarging, field trips will be taken to shoot the pictures, and then each boy will process his film, print and enlarge the picture, that he will enter in the first exhibit and contest to be held at the Center.

Expert judges in the field of photography will decide the winner, and the Desert Camera Shop has donated an enlarger as first prize to the lucky boy.

Nicholson's Now Grandparents

There's a reason for that proud swagger these days for Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nicholson.

They're grandparents. A son was born to Gordon Jr. at Glendale December 9, weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces. Gordon Nicholson Jr., is well known here, a graduate of Palm Springs high and now attending Occidental college.

Holiday Applies To Museum Too

Lloyd Mason Smith, director of Palm Springs Desert Museum, said that the Museum will observe the Christmas Day holiday, too.

There will be a field trip Saturday, December 24, or guest lecture that night.

The museum will be closed Saturday and Sunday.

Scouting Booms In County Area

Lloyd Simon, chairman of Palm Springs Boy Scout district council, said yesterday that Scouting is booming in Riverside county and that in the year to date 21 new Scout troops have been chartered in the area.

Ten other units are being organized and will be chartered soon.

He also announced that the annual Cub Scout Pow Wow will be held January 23 at Chemawa Junior high school in Arlington, near Riverside. Local Cub packs are planning to participate.

Job's Daughters Stage Benefit

A cake sale tomorrow will be held by members of the local Bethel, Job's Daughters, under the direction of Honored Queen Anna Mae Houghton, for the benefit of Imogene Wittsche, a sister of the group from the Roseville, Calif., Bethel, whose feet were cut off by a speedboat propeller at Lake Tahoe last summer.

Table for the sale will be set up during the morning in front of Induana and will continue throughout the day.

KITCHEN TRICK

TOPS FOR dessert—pour a tablespoon of molasses over an individual serving of vanilla ice cream. Top with gingersnap cookie crumbs, add a cherry for color.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

BRIGHTLY WRAPPED clusters of hard candy are gay Christmas tree ornaments—make fine souvenirs "right from the tree" for young visitors!

RECIPE

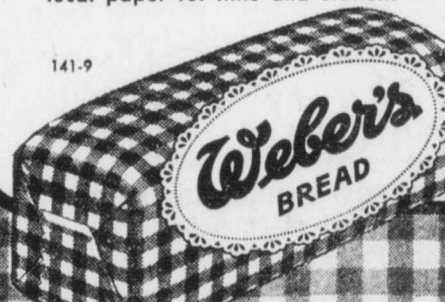

BAKED CIDER PUDDING

1/2 c. almonds 1 tsp. grated lemon peel
3/4 c. dry bread crumbs 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
3 eggs, separated 1 tsp. grated orange peel
1/4 c. sugar 2 c. cider

Put almonds and crumbs through food grinder, using finest blade. Beat egg yolks well, add sugar, beat until fluffy. Add lemon and orange peel, cinnamon, almonds and bread crumbs. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white and turn into well greased fluted mold. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 30 to 40 mins. or until firm. Unmold. Heat cider, pour slowly over pudding as soon as it is turned out. Serve with whipped cream.

Choirs Unite for Christmas Music

Combined choirs of Community church of approximately 100 voices will present a program of sacred Christmas music Sunday evening at the church. Five choir groups will be heard in the presentation under direction of Harry J. Tomlinson, in charge of music at the church. Mrs. Lois Lux will assist at the organ.

In preparation for the service two groups of choral singers will sing Christmas carols in The Center and The Plaza commencing at 7 p. m. and continue caroling as they walk to church. The Rev. James H. Blackstone Jr., pastor of the church, extended a hearty welcome to all Villagers to attend the outstanding service.

At the morning service at 11 a. m., Rev. Blackstone will preach on the text "The Word Was Made Flesh." A special Christmas mass offering will be taken at this service for Missionary work throughout the world. The Community church helps support Miss Ruth Pinckney in Japan and Mrs. Charles Harkens in the Philippines and contributes to other missions.

Jewish Services Start Tonight At Litman Home

To the many and varied religious services in the community of Palm Springs, there is to be included that of the Jewish faith. Starting tonight, and on each Friday night hereafter, at 8:00 p. m., religious services will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Litman, 328 Mountainview road, and will be conducted at this address until the completion of the Jewish Community Center building, on West Alejo.

Rabbi Phineas Smoller, regional director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, will conduct the opening services, assisted by Cantor Paltiel Buchner, of the Hollywood Synagogue, and the world-famous
"Sons of Liberty Choir."

Salvation Army Sounds Annual Plea for Funds

Raymond Cree, chairman of the local Salvation Army committee, today issued the organization's annual appeal for funds to the great relief of the need work throughout the world emphasizing that a portion of the money raised remains here for local welfare work.
Calling attention to the work of mercy the Salvation Army is doing throughout the world he asked for voluntary contributions to the fund as there were insufficient workers to cover the large local territory.

Letters were mailed regular annual contributors today.
Donations may be mailed, he said, to Fred Ingram, treasurer of the local committee, at the Bank of America, Palm Springs.

Christian Science Theme on Atomic Force

The Golden Text of the Sunday
Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, will be this verse from Jeremiah: "Ah Lord God! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out thy arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee." The question, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject.

A Bible citation from Isaiah reads, "Behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people
joy. . . And the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying. . . Before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. . . I will extend peace to her like a river. . . As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you."
In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "The scientific fact that man and the universe are evolved from Spirit, and so spiritual, is as fixed in divine Science as the proof that mortals gain the sense of health only as they lose the sense of sin and disease."

Palm Desert Sunbeams By EDITH EDDY WARD

The Jean Stromness fashion show was held last Sunday and was a complete success. This was the first time that Jean Stromness originals have been shown in California, as she hails from Salt Lake City. A member of Shadow Mountain Club and a Palm Desert property owner, she has worked for several months designing clothes especially for the desert and she really turned out some unusual creations. Her pastel cottons with appliqued flowers and sun hats to match made a picture that reminded us of Easter. For the cool desert evenings, Jean came out with striking black felt cocktail dresses embroidered with brilliant red, green and gold sequins. Outstanding were the Westerns, made of beautiful gabardine in all colors with suede fringed skirts and trim. The Todds and Michael Barton played for the show, while Dudley Warren sang Home on the Range during the showing of the Westerns.

Col. Mrs. D. R. Van Sicker and their two daughters arrived in Palm Desert, after three years in the Orient, to visit Mrs. Van Sicker's sister, Mrs. Percival K.
Nichols Jr. They will spend the holidays with the Nichols in Pasadena before leaving for Washington.

Canada has about 37,000 square miles of peat deposits.

Last week the California History and Landmark section of the Woman's Club of Claremont attended a luncheon at Shadow Mountain Club as guests of Marie B. Ilea. There were 41 in all.
There was a good turnout for the Box Social last Monday night for the benefit of the Palm Desert Community church. Carl Henderson auctioned off the boxes and raised $110 for the church building fund.

At the Shadow Mountain club, or staying in Palm Desert last week were Mayor McKinley with his small daughter; General and Mrs. E. T. Ricks, who flew out from Arkansas to visit Cliff Henderson; Bruce Odium with guests from the Cochran Ranch;
and Jimmy McHugh. Frank Borzage was a guest of the Fred Talbots.

From the reservation lists for Christmas New Years, it looks like everyone we know is planning to spend the holidays on the desert. The Jack Ken-astons from Laguna, Mr. and Mrs.
O. S. Weide with their guests,
Millie Mitchell and the Al Petersons, the Robert Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nafziger, Dr. and Mrs.
Alvia Brockway, the Richard Baileys and dozens of others have reservations for parties at the Shadow Mountain Club. It promises to be a gay time.

Tenpin Topics

Disaster struck the Frontier Shop Monday night when Al Stein dropped a ball on his toe. After time out he was in there pitching to help rack up a series score of 2541. Marty Kenyon stacked up 192 high game score and Al Renier carried high series with 470. L. A. Lathing won 3-1 over Frontier Shop. Nebby Neb-lung pin-mawling his way to hold high series of 607 and rolling some nice games of 215-223. Del Tahquitz hotel put The Sun behind a cloud when Joe Truino rolled a high game of 196 and carried a high series of 516 to help his team win 4-0 over The Desert Sun. Series score for Del Tahquitz was 2740 and 2595 for Desert Sun.

Lusby Insurance boys were in there pitching and tied 2-2 with the Plaza Garage boys. Johnny Boloz took honors for his high game score of 211 and high series of 509 while Arthur Riese rolled a 216 high game and a 564 series. El Paseo Pharmacy vs. Village Coffee Shop hit the lanes Tuesday night with the terrific high game of 147 racked up by Lucille Mitchell for El Paseo and Irene Zellstra with a 127. (Oh Brother). Village Coffee took a beating of 143 pins and lost 3-1. The Watson's Texaco Gals were so quiet when they rolled against Nite Spot of Banning that the tenants in the apartments upstairs reported they even got some sleep, could be they were concentrating on just how to beat the Banning gals, which they did when the chips were swept up. Mary Silver rolled high game of 150 for Nite Spot and 171 and 174 were racked up by Montie Mead for Texaco.

Plaza Garage won over Bullock's, 3-1 with a 144 pin gain. Vi Hubbs was high gal on the totem pole when she racked up a nice 170 game for Plaza Garage and held up her team with 476 high series score. Mary Sullivan was big noise for Bullock's with a 160 game.

Village Baseball Squads to Clash

Next Sunday's baseball game at The Field will be a "little civil war" between the two Palm Springs teams, the Contractors and the Dodgers, holder of second place in the county play so far. Second round will start shortly after the first of the year. Marking the last game of the first round, with the Coachella Volunteers leading the pack, this game is said by Don Allen, desert district secretary, to be a good offering for local team followers.

Game time is called for 2 p. m.

Village Tennis Plans Studied

City recreational program of tennis will be ready for January participation. Bob Bennett, director, said yesterday.

He said he is now preparing the "ladders" schedule of play-offs, and will be ready to announce the schedule next week.

Tennis Club Signs Kramer And Gonzales

The big time boys of tennis are scheduled to play exhibition matches at the Tennis Club February 12 when Jack Kramer and Pancho Gonzales take the court. Also playing in the exhibition matches will be Frankie Parker and Pancho Segura.

The contract was signed with Bobby Riggs, who has deserted his racket for the role of promoter, according to Fred Renker, club manager. The matches that Jack Kramer and Pancho Gonzales play in these exhibition appointments will determine the world's professional championship.

Temperamental Mr. Gonzales, whom California's all-powerful Perry Jones tried to eliminate from amateur tennis when he was a junior, was just too good to keep down and has the reputation of being a most colorful player. Jack Kramer, no stranger to Palm Springs courts, ranks as the perfect player, as well as the world's best.

Village Quint Tops Gate City

The traveling team of Lum Berry, "Scotty" McCutchin, John Sothras, Frank Binder and "Nebby" Neblung set the maples afire in a scratch game with the San Bernardino bowlers at Highland Recreation alleys last Saturday night and came home "the winner" with a nice 210-pin gain.

John Sothras, coach at P. S. lanes, held high game score of 230 and high series score of 607. McAdams for San Bernardino was top man with a high game of 212 and Gibson with 575 held high series score.

Sportsmen Visit Banning Group

A delegation from the local Palm Springs Sportsmen Inc., headed by President Carl Keene, attended the annual meeting Wednesday night of the San Geronimo Pass Fish and Game Conservation association held at the Banning American Legion hall.

Reports on conservation activities at Sacramento were made by Virg Noverson, southern counties secretary. District Fisheries Biologist Will Evans and Club President Ray Knight.

Musicians Injured In Highway Accident

Three musicians were injured Sunday morning at about 4 a. m. when the car in which they were traveling from Indio to their home in San Bernardino turned over on highway 99 near the 111 turnoff. Taken to the Community hospital were Roy Miranda, Ralph Joseph Laguna and Jess Cruz. Cruz was released by the doctor in attendance while Laguna was able to go home Tuesday. Miranda, suffering a back injury, is still confined.

Cub Scouts Rescue Waifs; Anybody Want to Help Out?

Like Babes in the wood, two newly-weaned puppies lay down to die during last week's rain. They were imperiled for the warmth of their mother as they grew weaker before a merciless fate decreed by someone who must have "dumped" them there, too far from habitation for puppy survival. Myriads of tiny insects swarmed over their doomed bodies.

When their ordeal began, nobody knows but their cruel deserters.

HOWEVER, after the storm, by some miraculous coincidence, Cub Scouts Dick and Don Casey; their sister Judy and Cub Scout Jo Caterinichio, who all live in the Vista del Cielo tract, decided to take a hike down El Cielo road.

You can guess what they found, and what they did. When the boys reported their discovery to their Den mother, Jeannette O'Day, 3780 Calle San Antonio, the rehabilitation and finding of homes for the puppy foundlings became an official project of Den Number Six.

MRS. MARVIN WADE, a humanitarian neighbor, took the weakest of the exposure victims to Dr. O. B. McRory who, according to Mrs. Wade, undoubtedly saved its life by efficient medication. Both "girl dogs" of course, they might be described as resembling (1) a teddy bear; (2) a be-whiskered monkey.

Headquarters for Den Number Six, where the reclaimed outcasts now await adoption into happy homes, instead of death on the desert, may be contacted by phoning 2-5262.

HOLIDAY TOURNAMENT—In preparation of the Tennis Club's first big junior tennis event here December 27-31, are shown Club Professional Bob Renker, Mrs. Earl Cordrey, Jimmie Hicks, Sandra Cordrey, Tommy Tyler (standing) and Mrs. Arthur Bailey. This is the first open playoff for juniors, an event which is expected to be repeated at the club each year.

Basketball Loop Rapidly Shaping Up Says Bennett

City league basketball is rapidly shaping up, Bob Bennett, city recreation director, said yesterday, with the formation of six definite teams and the probability of four more to make a total of 10 in the city league, plus the Doll House five which will again represent Palm Springs in the county league.

With the tentative schedule calling for commencement of play on December 21, the following teams are already completed in their rosters: Youth Center, Desert Hot Springs, Globe Trotters, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mexican Colony and Pelum's Rockets.

Listed also as probable participants are teams representing the following: Lions club, Cathedral City, Coachella Valley Packers and a team, as yet unnamed, sponsored by Al Crossley. Three nights of play each week will be included in the schedule with Monday nights' contests to be run off at the Palm Springs Athletic club and the Wednesday and Thursday double headers at the high school gym, Bennett said.

To handle the refereeing duties will be Warren Linville, high school and C.I.F. official, and Don Allen.

Westphal Loses Another Round

County health officer, Dr. Robert Westphal, lost another battle with supervisors Monday. His request for a medical stenographer for his department was denied.

Junior Net Tournament Slated Here

Youngsters of the Village and surrounding terrain are getting set for the first event of its kind given by the Tennis Club in the Juniors Open Amateur Tennis tournament to be held December 27 through 31 for youngsters 12-21 in the southern California area.

Open to youngsters of the Village and other towns in the neighboring area the event is being sponsored by the club with appropriate prizes and trophies in store for the winners.

Entries will close at the club on Monday, December 26, and the final day, Saturday, will be marked by an afternoon tea dance at which time trophies and prizes will be awarded.

Affair is in charge of Renker, Dave Gillam of the Racquet Club, and Helen Williams, social director of the Desert Inn.

Bowling Star To Speak Here

Florine Spellman, member of the WIBC and secretary for 15 years of the Citrus Belt Bowling association, will be guest speaker at a meeting tomorrow night at the Palm Springs Bowling academy at 8 o'clock.

All team members and other interested lady bowlers are invited by the management to hear Miss Spellman who will answer

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Now Hospitals Are "Banks," Too!

Doc Simpson was saying, "Hospitals are building up 'bone banks' that work just like blood banks. When bone is needed, the surgeon takes one from a refrigerator, cuts it to the right shape and simply splices it in."

"You doctors are sure making progress," I says, "but tell me, are any of the patients fussy about whose bone they're getting?"

"No sir!" replies Doc. "No more than they worry about whose blood they get. No one yet asked for a bone from a man who went to the same school or church he did."

From where I sit, it would be a better world if we were half as willing to accept other people's ideas and tastes, as we seem to be willing to accept their bone and blood. There'll always be differences. Some like buttermilk, others would rather have a sparkling glass of temperate beer. But underneath we're pretty much the same—deserving each other's respect and tolerance!

Photo Contest Is Under Way

Getting well under way is the Desert Inn Amateur Photographic Contest, which is an annual event for guests of the Inn from Dec. 1 to April 25. Photographs submitted must be taken in Palm Springs, or vicinity, during the guests' visit at the Inn during the season of 1949-50. Guests need not be residing in the hotel at the time of judging.

Classes include children, December; Scenic, January; Animals, February; Sports, March; and Western, April. Entries are judged only in the class in which they are entered, and prize ribbons are mailed to the winners for each of the five classes. Judging will be done by professional photographers. Monthly finalists will compete for the grand prize. The prize-winning photos will be posted in the Desert Inn lobby each month.

Gay Doings
At Biltmore
For Visitors

The Palm Springs' "breezes" blew another merry group into the Biltmore for a week of fun by the pool in the daytime and many assembled in the bar for after dark frolic.

The guest roster assembled folks from as far away as Miami, Florida. Among those joining the throng were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gengenbach, of Chicago, here for the second visit this season, stopping en route to Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bloom, Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Doblin, Paterson, N. J. And from Kansas City came Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith.

A meeting of national interest was held at the Biltmore this week with officials of Ethyl Gas Corp. present. They were led by R. K. Seales of Detroit. Others attending were William G. Ball Jr., New York; H. T. Mueller and F. C. Page, both Detroit; A. B. Wyzick, Donald J. Chapman, T. S. DuBoise, Frank Elliott, Glen D. Grant, John F. Koehnle and Robert R. Mead, of Los Angeles; and Harry F. Manning, San Leandro. Terminating a month's stay at the Biltmore Mr. and Mrs. Jay B. Jacobs celebrated with a birthday party for the host. He is chairman of the board of Simon Levi Co., Los Angeles. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weinberger of Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jacobs, son and daughter-in-law of the hosts from Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Metzler.

Woman's Group Formed in Palm Village

A group of women of Palm Village met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Mitchell this week to form a women's group to be active in church and social work. The meeting was called by Rev. J. R. Macartney of the Palm Village Community church.

Among activities sponsored by the group is the new Sunday school in the Palm Village church, old fashioned box suppers at the church and plans for Christmas caroling, etc.

On display at the meeting were plans for the new church, designed by Barry Frost. Construction is scheduled soon.

As many as ten black and white entries in each of the five classes, and each must be an 8" by 10" print mounted on an 11" by 14" mounting board, unframed, according to Social Director, Helen Williams.

Too Many Cooks? Not at All

"You can't have too many cooks for a Luau," says Leo Fields, chef extraordinary, as he shows his helpers how the South Sea Islanders put the apple in the porker's mouth before roasting. "Especially you can't have too many cooks when they are Virginia Farrell, Caroline, Hicks and Barbara Hinkle." The middle man in the piece is Ray Dodge.

The place is Thunderbird Ranch where they are fixing to have a genuine, first-class, super-duper Luau on December 20, for the benefit of St. Theresa Catholic school. It will be complete down to the last lei, flown from Honolulu naturally, with the rest of the leis.

"Food, entertainment and decorations will be SENSATIONAL," says Frank Bogert, who is in general charge of operations, but who didn't have quite enough influence with his fellow workers to get in the picture.

Paul Austs Entertain

The Paul Austs honored their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jennings of Hope ranch, Santa Barbara, with a dinner party Saturday evening.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shearer, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Off of Palm Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. John Burkheimer and Mr. and Mrs. William McElfatrick of Seattle who are vacationing here.

Everything seems to be sweetness and light on the social front with everybody looking forward to the holidays which will be the signal for many a lavish local party.

Esther McGee interrupted a colorful account of a wienie bake which pre-opening guests at Wonder Palms staged the other night, to tell us that she was going to the Chef's Cuisine dinner at the Greene hotel in Pasadena. It's the annual banquet of the Cordon Bleu Chefs with each member of the Cordon Bleu preparing the dish that won him election to the select society. It's a great honor to be invited but Esther wishes in a way she wasn't. DUE to being on a diet. Quel misere!

Getting a workout in the fine art of square dancing at the Stables Saturday night were Dr. and Mrs. John Costello with their house guests Dr. and Mrs. Frank Nolan of Beverly Hills—and a very healthy way to have fun, said the M.D.s. Completing the square were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haeh from Inglewood, Inn and Mrs. Charles Montgomery, and the boss himself, Governor Jimmy Davis. Watching operations from the sidelines was Palm Springs' winter colony resident Frank Adams who opened his hacienda on Chino Canyon road last Sunday for the season.

Jimmy Davis was off to Hollywood this week to complete arrangements for the shooting of "Square Dance Katie," in which he will play the lead. Shooting stars in mid-January. See what happens to people who square dance? They get to play in the movies. The ex-governor of Louisiana is also going to cut some new square dance records with his Sunshine Band.

Around and about the Racquet Club this weekend were Mr. and Mrs. George Sheahan, former Smoke Tree Ranchers now residing in Portland. They were entertained at luncheon at the club Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cordrey with the party including Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colborn and Jiggs Lightner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ingram joined the Racquet Club Sunday night buffet group in a party which included Mr. and Mrs. William Leeds, Eddie Goulding and Jane de Vos... other local Sunday nighters were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burness, Johnny Meyers was in for cocktails and dinner with his fiancée Patricia Lydon and Cleatus Caldwell, (the ex Mrs. Robert Hutton) and her current escort songwriter Jimmy van Heusen. Joining the group was another famed music maker, Mack Gordon.

Dancer Carmen Miranda opened her winter colony hacienda this week and she and her husband Victor (big hunk of man) Mature have been around and about in the custom built Lincoln Continental. And a very handsome sight, too.

AT WOMAN'S CLUB—Director Curtis L. Stearns and the Masquer's Quartette which will appear at the Christmas program of Palm Springs Woman's club next Monday.

Woman's Club Plans Fine Christmas Party Program

By RUTH MARTIN

Each year at Christmas time the Palm Springs Woman's club presents an unusually beautiful program for the entertainment of its members and guests. Inspiring music, lovely Christmas decorations, an attractive tea, and the gay holiday spirit, all combine to ensure a memorable afternoon. The concert, planned for the December 19th meeting at the Palm Springs Woman's club will be of exceptional brilliance as it presents the renowned Masquer's Quartette under the capable direction of Curtis L. Stearns, famous as a conductor throughout Europe and America. No less a personage than Herta Glaz, Metropolitan opera star, acclaims this marvelous quartette as "one of the finest combination of voices ever heard."

The Masquer's Quartette is composed of Alice Lee, soprano, who has appeared in the Hollywood Bowl under the direction of Leopold Stokowski, and is well known in motion pictures, radio and operatic roles; Stephan Kemalyan, baritone, equally at home in opera, concert, oratorio, and a soloist with Santa Monica symphony, San Francisco symphony, and Werner Janssen symphony;

Katherine Chapman, mezzo-soprano, also a soloist with UCLA symphony orchestra and was winner of the 1947 Atwater Kent auditions, as well as having appeared with the Pasadena Civic symphony orchestra and at the Philharmonic auditorium, and Breese Westmoreland, tenor, with a lyric voice of rare beauty is the fourth member of the quartet and has sung with the American Opera company and as soloist on NBC and with the Santa Monica symphony.

This galaxy of stars with beautiful voices will offer a well balanced program of solos, duets, and trios as well as quartets. A large attendance is expected for this unusually fine program and guests will be admitted by card or the usual guest ticket.

University Women Plan Scholarships

Collaborating with its national program, Palm Springs Branch of The American Association of University Women is starting a Fellowships, Scholarships campaign. The plan has a double purpose of providing Fellowships for foreign students to study in the United States, and of providing scholarships for worthy local girls to attend college.

Last year over 300 foreign students were able to study in this country because either all or part of their expenses were provided by the combined efforts of the 107,000 members of the A.A.U.W. The Palm Springs Branch is anxious, as a new group, to make a worthwhile contribution to this project. On the other hand they recognize the need for available scholarships for Palm Springs high school graduates. Their greatest effort will be along this line this year, hoping to have a scholarship available for next fall.

The first endeavor will be made on January 11, when the Clare Tree Major players are brought to Palm Springs for a children's matinee performance of the well known story of Toby Tyler.

The Fellowships scholarship committee is composed of Miss Sara Jean Jenkins, chairman; Mrs. Clinton Bauer, Miss Elizabeth Arnold, Mrs. W. C. McCoy, Mrs. Catherine Gentry and Mrs. E. W. Emery. They make an appeal to the citizens of Palm Springs to help in this educational undertaking.

Gay Pyjamas Mark Birthday Celebration Here

A sight that reminded old timers of Palm Springs' earlier, zanier days greeted the fascinated gaze of the public late Tuesday afternoon when Frederick Watson came sashaying down Palm Canyon drive clad in yellow striped pajamas and carrying a piece of birthday cake complete with a burning candle. Accompanying him and singing "Happy Birthday to Freddie" was his sister, Mrs. Altha Wilson.

First part of call for the care-free couple was the Dunes where they were joined by several friends and the customers assembled joined in "Happy Birthday." After making the rounds of the downtown spots and receiving ovations from all sides, they repaired to the residence of Mrs. Priscilla Chaffey where a birthday dinner was served in honor of Mr. Watson. The extremely decorative, not to say "loud" pajamas, were the birthday gift of Mr. Watson's daughter, Suzanne.

Portrait of the Week

BY BERNARD OF HOLLYWOOD

Palm Springs has an attraction for every state in the union and West Virginia isn't any exception. Mrs. Lillian Goodman and her daughter Ginger are winter visitors from Huntington, W. Va. Last season they were occasional visitors and liked it so well they decided to spend the entire season this year. The tranquility and the lack of hustle and bustle of heavy traffic that usually accompanies big city living greatly appealed to them, especially so to Mrs.

Goodman, as it is a splendid opportunity to just relax after a hectic business career as owner and operator of the exclusive shop Milady, Inc. of Huntington. Mrs. Goodman has acquired many interesting hobbies during her life. Her daughter Ginger is thrilled and enthused about the Palm Springs high school because of its sociability of both the teachers and the students, which goes to prove that the friendliness of the village is pretty well established and extends even to the schools.

Six-Year-Old Celebrates at Del Tahquitz

Sunday was the big day for Natalie Jean Harper, daughter of Mrs. Lorraine Harper, when she celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at Hotel del Tahquitz. Taking pictures of the playing adults and admiring audience of oldsters was Paul Valencia.

Young guests included Lambertito and Rene Leyoa, Larry and Marie Marguerite Sitter, Ronny Weinstein, Caroline Miller, Mary Jo Stephens, Sally Stephens, Adele Zanfield. A coterie of admiring adults included Mrs. L. Sitter, Miss Sylvia Jambon, Mrs. Delia Leyoa, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Miss Victoria BeeBa, Miss

Mrs. Dollard Hostess at Racquet Club

Mrs. Henry Dollard was hostess Tuesday at the Racquet Club for a charming luncheon in the club's garden room with bridge in the afternoon in the lounge. Guests included Mrs. Betty McCullough, Mrs. Bruce Burritt, Mrs. Ed Conekens, Mrs. Victor Essroger, Mrs. Henry Cummings, Mrs. Noble Banks, her houseguest, Mrs. James Bailey, and Mrs. William McBride.

Yuletide Cheer At Trezevants

Invitations were out this week for a Yuletide Cheer party for which Mr. and Mrs. Rembert Trezevant will be host and hostess Sunday afternoon. The party is among the first of the "get in the mood for Christmas" affairs and the colorful Christmas greens and reds will be used in decorating the hacienda on South Palm Canyon drive.

George Clarke Off to Seattle

Off to Seattle to confer on a knotty law problem was Seattle Lawyer George Clark. In Palm Springs he's a restaurateur, owns and operates the Town & Country.

Doing the Village

You can't help but capture the Christmas spirit if you are around children and the children in the elementary schools are really going all out this year. It is fun to walk into a classroom and see such remarkable industry going on. Some are painting scenes on window panes, others making Christmas cards, the violin groups are sawing out Silent Night, the classes studying Mexico are planning a pinata and fancy presents for parents are very much in evidence. You can certainly pick up clever decorating ideas from such a tour.

The fifth and sixth grades at North End School, under the direction of Angela Brennan, presented a delightful musical program to the A.A.U.W. at their Tuesday night meeting. We never seem to capture that angelic expression on their faces when they come out for Physical Education but maybe we should use white choir robes for gym outfits.

Family Christmas

Looking forward to having their families gathered together for the holidays are the Donald Lockets, who are expecting Shirley home from Anna Head School for Girls this weekend. Mary Pendery arrives Sunday from Principea in the mid-west and Pack will be down from Stanford to round out the family group. Nicky Nichols and Ben Chaffey will also make the trip down from Palo Alto and are looking forward to this year's Cotillion when all the college crowd will hold a grand reunion. Don Omlin was in town this

School Principal Here for Season

Miss Josephine O'Leary, retired school principal of Santa Monica, arrived in the Village last week to spend the rest of the season.

Miss O'Leary is the aunt of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McCormick of Banning. Mr. McCormick is composing town foreman for The Desert Sun.

Newlyweds Feted At Reception

A reception was held Saturday afternoon to mark the wedding earlier in the week of Paul Rupert to Miss Dorothy Hulsizer, at the home of the groom's father, J. P. Rupert. The bride is formerly of Huntington Park, California.

week, on leave from Pacific duty with the Coast Guard. We really miss those Omlins who are now residing in Westmoreland. Other ex-Villagers we spotted were Eleanor and Jimmy Shea, up from La Jolla for the weekend and enjoying being tourists in the Desert Inn style. Frank Doro came down off the Hill to thaw out for a few hours on Monday—found we were all doing likewise.

Legion Celebration

A yearly holiday party is a must for the Lions Club and this year's dinner dance at the Palm House on Monday night proved to be one of the best yet. Clare Reed certainly gets around but when caught in the act her face wasn't red, it was luminous. Al Weingarten has enough gags up his sleeve to be Talltwaister.

Children of Legionnaires will be honored Sunday afternoon at the Legion Hall where, under the chairmanship of Barbara Coffman, a Christmas party has been planned for them. On Tuesday night St. Theresa's active Mother's Club is sponsoring a Hawaiian Luau at Thunderbird with Tani Boyle handling planning those wonderful Island dishes that will be served. Not only the food but also flowered leis are being flown over for the occasion. Mrs. George Ritt is home from the hospital with new addition Catherine Ann who is a fat, little, pink cheeked brunette. From Santa Barbara we hear it's a boy for the Gil Smiths. Mara is the former Mariana Slocum and grandma is Villager Adelaide Knox.

Party at
Palm House

Palm Springs Lions turned out en masse Monday night at the Palm House to honor their ladies with a dinner dance. The affair was an outstanding success with an excellent dinner, good dance music and entertainment. Chief spark plugs for the party were Chuck McGann and Al Weingarten, who had the affair in charge.

Among those present were the Leo Bakers, George Bells, Charles Burketts, Frank Chalfonts, Jimmy Coopers, Francis Crocker, John Connells, Phil Delanos, Marvin Fritz, Don Floans, John DeVines, Cloyd Helters, Earl Houghs, Clarence Hydes, Homer Jenkins, Charles La Rue, Charles Matthews, Herbert Mennells, Charles McGann, Dr. McRorys, Hutch Moseleys, George T. Olivers, Elmo Purnells, Ted Reeds, Jack Schnepers, Sam Stuarts, Foster Simonens, Warren Slaughters, Gene Theriaeu, Armand Turonnets, Harold Wests, Al Weingarten, Ely Windhursts, Roger Williams, Jud Osburn, Barney Ostrow and Rolly Vaile, as well as quite a contingent of guests.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Charles McGann, Clare Reed, Charles La Rue and Al Weingarten. Entertainment by Connie Barleau from the Dunes and Freddie Slack, pianist and former band-leader from Saddle & Sirolo added to the night's events.

Christmas Party
For Junior High
At Youth Center

Dixie Gardner, student-body president, has announced that the annual Junior High Christmas will be held this year at the Youth Center. The center has been decorated lavishly for the holiday season. Among the various decorations, used ping-pong balls have been made into shining gold and silver ornaments by the members. The Christmas tree was donated by Jerry's Market.

Refreshments, furnished by the students will follow the dancing. Sponsors for the dance include: Frank Donlin, Miss Edna LaPoint, Jack Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Costelow and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Toline. Miss Dianne Weatherford heads the dance committee and a community sing will add to the festivity of the evening.

Dancer's Death
Mourned by Pupil

The death of the man who held the eyes of the world with his dancing was mourned in Palm Springs by dance director Roy Randolph who was taught to dance by the late and great Bill (Bojangles) Robinson. A spread in the current Life magazine on the funeral of the colored dancer reported that over a million people lined the streets to pay final tribute to "Bojangles."

In the course of his career Bill Robinson danced at the Los Angeles Ambassador when Villager Randolph had his studio there. He used in his famous "staircase" dance. Asked if he had learned how to do the "staircase" dance from the Negro genius, Mr. Randolph replied, "Sure, I learned how, but nobody but Bojangles could do it. He was the greatest dancer that ever lived."

Reunion in Paris

Playing sharp tennis at the Racquet Club this week is John Brandies who leaves soon to fly to Paris where he will join Mrs. Brandies for Christmas and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur May. Both Mrs. May and Mrs. Brandies are en route now for Europe by boat to join Mr. May, who is already there. Pretty complicated but they'll probably make it.

DESERT
Museum
NEWS

The Ancient Incan Civilization of Peru will be the subject of tonight's anthropology program. Films will be "Land of the Incas" and "Inca Cuzco." Public invited; no charge.

Tomorrow's field trip will be to Eagle canyon, a beautiful palm oasis near Cathedral City. The trip will include about three miles easy trail walking and some 10 miles faster driving. Bring lunch and water and meet at the museum at 10:30 a. m.; return at 2:00.

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock Carl Thomsen of Los Angeles will present his new color motion picture, "Alaska and the Yukon," in the auditorium of the Frances Stevens school on North Palm Canyon drive. Open to the public without charge. Priority seating will be given museum members until 7:30.

Monday M. Ward will present an illustrated talk on "Photographing Desert Wildflowers" at the meeting of the Desert Photography group at the museum. Mr. Ward will show his own color slides; at the conclusion of the program members of the audience who have brought their own slides will be invited to show them. A short film, "Evolution of the Motion Picture," will also be shown. The public is invited to attend; no charge. 8 o'clock.

Mary Nelson Hostess at Airliner Cafe

Mary Nelson, Palm Springs' flying ace who operates the Palm Springs airport, unfurled a dinner party Monday evening at the Airliner restaurant at the port, which brought something new to the local social scene.

A gay cocktail party preceded dinner, which was enlivened by occasional planes swooping out of the sky for night landings. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. James Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. John Gallois, Sue Singleton, William Wool, Bill Boggess, Win Wood and Charles Russhon.

Lunching by the pool at the Racquet Club this week were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bacon.

Cholly Springs

Your lowly reporter is flying high these days and is all up in the air over how wonderful it is to be able to take off from the Palm Springs airport and cruise as far as Arizona for an afternoon.

We didn't know what fun it was until Villager George Strebe, who is aviation chairman of the Chamber of Commerce as well as owner of the Doll House, took us up in his Bellanca and showed us what really beautiful country we're in.

It's a wonder more Palm Springs don't take advantage of their airport, because it is one of the finest in the world and should be the perfect place for a private plane club.

We had a long chat with clever and capable Mary Nelson, who runs the port, and she told us several fascinating facts, that we never knew, being only a ground school enthusiast.

Did you know that Palm Springs has 99 per cent perfect flying weather? That it is one of the best maintained ports? That it's landing strip is one of the longest in the world, being two feet longer than La Guardia field? That you can get rent-a-car transportation for yourself and the minute you land on the ground? That there are comfortable sleeping quarters for winged transients and a nice newly decorated restaurant where the meals are most reasonable.

No wonder, Edgar Bergen, Dick Powell, Lee Simms and so many fliers love that Palm Springs airport! Another feature which appealed to us, besides all the beautiful scenery, is that there are so many various points of interest to fly to. Once you're up, you can take your choice of at least 20 destinations for an afternoon jaunt.

Then as an added attraction to come back, the Doll House is offering a special Flier's breakfast and a free "Genie" cocktail, which is guaranteed to send your head reeling back into the clouds again.

Of course, Cholly knows he's talking like one of the Wright Brothers, but no kidding, but for fun, go take a plane for yourself!

Fashion Show
At Shadow
Mountain

A well-attended fashion show put on by Jean Stromness at Shadow Mountain Club brought desert design to an enthusiastic audience over the weekend. Watching and lunching were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hansen and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roberts, Mrs. R. A. Ellsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Pasow and Mr. Keats of San Francisco, Miss Margaret Bogert of Thunderbird, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tobin, III; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Tresevant, the Norman Davidsons of Pasadena with Cornel Wilde.

Also around and about for the weekend was General E. T. Ricks. Bruce Odium brought over guests from the Odium Ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Mel R. Kent entertained a party of guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Manson of Vista de Oro had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Pumphrey, who are in the Village from Seattle.

Happy Birthday,
And It's the 82nd

Mrs. Charles Wallace of Bel Air was a very honored guest at the Tennis Club Saturday night when her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Lang, entertained with a dinner in honor of her 82nd birthday.

Guests assembled to wish Mr. Wallace "many happy returns," were Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Haum of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kalliwoda, Bel Air, William Girard, Beverly Hills.

Pools Dominate Building Record

Palm Springs is going in for cleanliness in a big way.

Five swimming pools were begun in the Village last week according to building permits issued at the city hall.

One $13,000 dwelling was also in the list.

Permits for the week were issued to:

C. V. Essroger, 222 Camino Altura, Ed. Kenyon, pool, $4000; G. B. Coleman, 371 Stevens road, Reg Jones, pool, $3500; C. L. Gouglar, 275 Vereda del Norte, Paddock Engineering, pool, $5000; M. B. Marsh, 289 Camino del Sur, Paddock Engineering, pool, $6000; Don Nielson, 1625 Sunrise Way, dwelling, $13,000; Rancher Trailer Park, 1563 South Palm Canyon, addition, $3000; The Town House, 359 South Belardo, Paddock Engineering, pool, $7000.

Rummage Sale Plea Sounded

Palm Springs Jewish Women's group this week sends out an appeal to those readying up their homes for the holidays: "If you are getting your place in order for the holidays and find things that are in the way that you cannot use, a phone call to Mrs. R. Kulla, 4852 or Mrs. C. Bonoff at 7142 will bring someone to your door pronto to pick it up."

Articles turned in will be put out at a rummage sale, now in progress, next to Ramon Drug store on South Indian avenue.

Here for Holiday

Ten-year-old John Romatko Jr., coming down from Seattle, Wash., flew into town Wednesday to visit with his father, Village resident for many years. To spend the Christmas holidays with his father, he will also finish out the school year in Palm Springs.

Outdoor Dancing Park Requested

Application to the city council through the Planning commission was made at this week's council meeting by J. R. Krug for construction of outdoor dancing, bicycle rental and outdoor eating place called "Kiddieland Amusement Park," to be located on Indian avenue adjoining SportsPark, at present operating under the direction of Owner Steve Ross.

It was said that the new venture would complement the activities of SportsPark by including many concessions attractive to the youngsters. Upon motion of Councilman Tom Kieley, decision on this was postponed until the first meeting next month, January 4.

"EASY DOES IT"
WHEN LAUNDERING GARMENTS made of heavy flannel, give them a brisk shaking before hanging on the line. When dry, they'll be fluffy, soft and wrinkle-free.

To have luxuriously scented sheets and pillow cases, drop a few bath salts into the bluing water as you wash.

Fringe on bedspreads and linens may be straightened by combing with a fine-toothed comb while the articles are still damp. They will need no further attention when dry as the fringe will be tangle-free.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Ham Griddle Cakes
(Makes 12 medium)
2 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
3 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
4 tablespoons melted butter
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
2 cups ground cooked ham
Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder. Stir melted butter into slightly beaten egg yolks; add the milk. Add to dry ingredients and stir just enough to moisten. Fold in ham, then stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake on a hot griddle.

Do your tinting and dyeing in the washing machine with the unit turned on. This keeps the garment and dye in motion and will prevent streaking. Wash the machine carefully after this use to prevent dye and tint from discoloring the next washing.

Shade is best for drying blankets, both for preserving color and the wool yarns. If possible, use two parallel clothes lines, and hang the blanket smoothly over both of them to preserve the original shape.

Large pieces of laundry are more easily dampened while on the line, to be removed immediately after sprinkling, folded and placed in the wash basket for ironing.

Dampened wash may be wrapped in a large square of plastic material to keep it perfectly moist until ironed. Cover the entire bundle to prevent drying.

Save on laundry time by using many articles of seersucker and other materials that need no ironing. Also use plastic shields on table cloths to cut down laundry.

D. B. Carlin Now on Staff At Munholland's

D. B. Carlin, for many years Long Beach, has become associated with the Munholland & Company office, 431 N. Palm Canyon drive, it was revealed this week.

Mr. Carlin brings to this office his many years of experience in real estate investments and will be pleased to welcome his many friends. He is a former president of the Long Beach Board of Realtors and is active in the Shrine Childrens hospital and the Masonic lodge. He is a member locally of the Palm Springs Community church.

Top Entertainers At Saddle-Sirloin

Dave Lyons at the Saddle and Sirloin is back in the middle of things again with three shows nightly by top entertainers starting tonight.

Freddie Slack, well known orchestra leader and writer of many popular numbers, will be heard on the piano and Joan Greer, one of his latest discoveries, will be heard in song. Slack discovered Margaret Whiting and Ella May Moss, now top stars, and expects Miss Greer to go far, too.

Added to these is Charley Chancy, the unpredictable colorful comedian at the piano.

Banning Man Dies In Mountain Crash

Reforestation Project is Begun

Forest service has received several hundred seedling Jeffrey pines scheduled for reforestation in the San Jacinto Mountains. With favorable weather conditions, the trees will be planted on Saturday.

The reforestation project is to be conducted on an experimental basis in the vicinity of the dump. The trees will be planted on acreage burned in the 1943 fire that swept almost to the edge of Idyllwild. Additional plantings will be made as soon as the rate of survival is determined. Some damage from rodents and deer is expected.

In order to insure reasonable results, the Forest Service declares that the moisture level should penetrate approximately 18 inches of soil. Normal rains next summer will maintain most of the seedlings until they have secured a hold.

Here are the answers to the question---

SHOULD YOU FILE A FICTITIOUS FIRM NAME?

- Ques. What is a Fictitious Firm name?
Ans. Any name which does not completely and clearly identify the owner or owners.
- Ques. Why should an individual or partnership doing business under a Fictitious Name file and publish a Certificate?
Ans. 1. The law is specific and mandatory. Business people, like other persons, should obey the law. 2. No Court action of any sort can be maintained until Certificate is filed and published. 3. Such filing and publishing contributes to the value and protection of a trade name.
- Ques. Is the name "J. B. Smith Company" a fictitious name?
Ans. Yes. Because the term "company" is ambiguous and suggestive of uncertainty.
- Ques. How can customer find if he has filed and published his certificate of business?
Ans. Simply by checking with the Riverside County clerk's office.
- Ques. What does Section 2468 of the Civil Code mean by the wording that no person or partnership failing to comply "shall maintain any action upon, or on account of, any contract or contracts made or transactions had," under such fictitious name in any Court of this State?
Ans. Simply that the person or partnership cannot sue.
- Ques. Does this mean that cash stores are not affected?
Ans. There are many grounds for court actions besides the mere collection of past due accounts. For instance, a cash grocery may wish to sue a trucking company for damage to shipments.
- Ques. In case of a change in ownership, must the new owner file and publish?
Ans. Yes. "Every person transacting business in this state under a fictitious name" must file and publish.
- Ques. In case one partner is succeeded by another, must a new certificate be filed and published.
Ans. Yes. Section 2469 of the Civil Code states that "On every change in the members of a partnership transacting business in this State under a fictitious name . . . a new certificate must be filed with the County Clerk and a new publication made."
- Ques. Must a corporation file and publish a certificate?
Ans. Yes, when the corporation as a person owns and operates some other business under a fictitious firm name. In such event it must file and publish, otherwise not.
- Ques. Do public authorities demand compliance with the fictitious firm law?
Ans. Yes. For instance, the California State Department of Vocational Standards will not issue a license to any contractor or contracting partnership who has not filed and published.
- Ques. Does the filing and publication of a Trade Name Certificate have value in establishing owners' title in a firm name?
Ans. Yes the courts have held such registration and publication to be a prima facie evidence of name ownership where two claimants to a name have contested ownership.

Supervisors Not Impressed With Banning's Ideas

Banning's solution of the problem of county division—move the county seat to Banning—left supervisors cold this week. They heard a letter from the Banning Chamber of Commerce, citing that a move of the county government to that Pass city would end the hard feeling on the desert because of the long distances to the court house and end controversy over neglect of the desert because the court house would be more fully aware of the desert's problems because of proximity. County Counsel W. O. Mackey outlined steps necessary to moving the county seat—a petition by 50 per cent of the county's voters and then a successful county-wide election—but still the supervisors were not impressed. "That's a matter for the people of the county, not the board of supervisors," Chairman Floyd Gilmore told Mrs. Merrill Brown of Banning who presented the matter.

Winter Resident Taken by Death

Death came Tuesday to Arham Ancker, 72, retired clothing merchant of Beverly Hills, living at 2765 North Indian Avenue with his wife Ann for some time past. Heart condition was said to be the contributing factor to the death. Arrangements were handled by Wiefel's and Son, morticians. Cremation services were held at San Bernardino yesterday and interment services are set for today. Besides Mrs. Ancker, the deceased is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lydia Stern of San Mateo.

Palm House OK'd

A communication to city council from the State Board of Equalization this week regarding application by Victor M. Sudaha, doing business as Palm House, for transfer of on-sale general license from Sudaha and Hughes, was met without protest.

need of contributions for the stockings inasmuch as they are going to use larger stockings this year and there are many more to distribute, and there is an all-time high in children to participate in the program this year, with nearly 1300 children to greet Santa and be given their stockings. Louise Purnell, president of the club, said yesterday that there is a very small amount of contributions returned so far and it is necessary for the kind hearts of Villagers to come through immediately if the children are to be taken care of adequately this year. All contributions, she said, should be sent to the Palm Springs Business Women's club, P. O. Box 162, Palm Springs.

Santa Rides Tomorrow

At the request of President Leo Baker of the Retail Merchants Association, Santa Claus (alias Sergeant Jim Maynard) will again visit the Village tomorrow evening on a whirlwind trip down Palm Canyon drive from the Doll House to Del Tahquitz hotel and back again in an effort to see as many of the youngsters as is possible along the street during the trip. In a beautiful sleigh, built by Dale Stoner, pulled by two white horses supplied by Marvin Tate of La Paz, St. Nick will proceed down the street with the accom-

Council Makes It Official

Adding official Season's Greetings to the many others being issued these days, Mayor Charles Farrell, at city council this week—last of the month—used the mayor's prerogative of making a motion that council officially "Wish a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to the citizens of Palm Springs." Resolution was passed unanimously.

Valley-Wide Tour by Santa

An imposing schedule is lined up for children of the valley today as a caravan from Indio, Rancho Mirage and other parts of the valley is formed at the Indio fairgrounds at 11 o'clock for a run to the Palm Springs airport where two western picture stars, Jock O'Hanley and Carolina Cotton, will disembark from a plane to join the procession back to Indio for a whirlwind series of events during the day. Highlight of the day will be at the Jackson street landing of the All-American canal where Santa Claus will float down to a stop at that point to join the assemblage. Dinner that evening will be with Santa at Shadow Mountain Club after which the people will go back to Indio to a teenagers dance at the Scout house at the ball park. This will be followed by a dance for adults at the VFW hall on Highway 99 at which the stars will also put on an entertainment program.

Entire affair was conceived and is sponsored by the Valley Christmas club, a group of mothers who formed the temporary organization for the benefit of the valley kiddies. Program is supervised and directed by Audree Hoseman of Indio.

Diagnostic Chest Clinic is Staged At Health Center

A diagnostic chest clinic was held yesterday at the Health Center, Dr. Frank Porter Miller of the County Health department, in charge.

According to Madge Holderman, city health nurse, the turnout was not as large as had been previously anticipated since cards had not yet been received by Villagers who took advantage of the Mobil X-Ray unit recently and all cases were either chronic or new ones as the result of routine interviews recently.

It is expected that the next clinic, time to be announced later, will produce a larger return of those wishing to be examined due to returns from the X-Ray findings.

LOYALIST LEADER

(A Short Story)

By RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

I WILL NEVER FORGET the spectacle of Prof. Uriah Herglotz standing amid the group of soldiers shouting: "To hell with the dictator!" These were stirring times; it took courage to make such a statement and under such circumstances. There was a quality of lost hope, of desperation in his voice. As if he knew his fate was sealed and no matter what he did he couldn't make it worse.

And well he might. I warned him not to mess around with the business in the first place. My warning had been of no avail.

At first he was angry. "Ah! You think I am a chemist, and that is all. You think I am capable of nothing else, that I do not feel, that I am not aware of what goes on ward, seized the chemist and began dragging him toward the door. He struggled furiously crying out epithets, spitting again toward the officer.

At the doorway he managed somehow to free himself. He plunged back toward the desk where the officer was still standing.

"Down with all dictators!" he cried, and before the astonished officer and soldiers could grasp what he was about he had seized a paper spindle and lunged toward the officer with a sharp point upraised.

The fool! He was making matters worse.

The officer swore fiercely and grasped the professor's upraised arm, bending it backward as though it was a willow reed, which, indeed, it was in strength.

A sharp cry of pain escaped the chemist's lips. He sank to his knees, his features contorted in agony. The officer with a savage twist threw him over backwards on the floor, sneered contemptuously and dusted off his hands as though the contact had dirtied them.

"There is no need to wait for the dawn," the officer said slowly and sneeringly. "Shoot him now. At once. The sooner the country is rid of such traitors the better."

Prof. Herglotz started to protest, but the soldiers hustled him again toward the door, this time making sure he did not escape.

I could stand it no longer.

"Wait!" I cried, striding down the aisle. "Stop it! This is terrible! It couldn't be worse!"

Everybody relaxed. "You're telling us!" the officer cried. He sat on his desk and lighted a cigarette. "How can you expect anything better with that?" He nodded toward the professor.

Prof. Herglotz looked at me and dropped his eyes. He came slowly forward, descending the steps from stage to auditorium. He sighed. "You were right. I am not an actor. I am sorry if I have spoiled the play for you."

"Forget it," I said, touching his arm. "You haven't spoiled it. We'll get some one else for the part. There's still a week before the opening night. Prof. Stickney, the history teacher, will be glad to fill in."

This was true. Stickney was a fiery little man. He would be a good one to play the part of the loyalist leader. I was glad that the end had come in time. As coach of the Munyon high school faculty plays for three years I had had plenty of headaches. This had been a close call.

"Sir, you have irreparably insulted the regime. There is no recourse. Tomorrow at dawn you will be shot."

around me. "So!" He began to plead. "Give me a chance. Let me show you the depths of my true self. If I fail I will be content to return to my laboratory and never trouble you again."

I conceded. You may condemn me for doing so, but that was because you did not see the burning passion in his eyes or hear the quivering quality of his voice. I gave him a chance.

What a fool I was! The officer behind the desk stood stiffly erect. The waxed mustaches of him fairly bristled. He eyed little Prof. Herglotz with a cold and shocked eye.

"Sir, you have irreparably insulted the regime. There is no recourse. Tomorrow at dawn you will be shot!"

My heart was torn with pity. Oh, if he had only listened to my warning. If he only could have foreseen what was to be. Now it was too late. His destiny was sealed.

"Take this man out of here!" the officer commanded harshly. He was wiping his face with a fine linen handkerchief.

Two of the soldiers leaped for-

The Desert Sun Definitely Not Ceramics Firm

"The Desert Sun is definitely not in the ceramic business," said Publisher Oliver Jaynes yesterday on the heels of rumors that the newspaper was branching out into ashtray operations as a result of the lobby display of a product advertised in the paper.

"We got a full page ad from the manufacturers of the ash tray—something we don't get very often, and as a gesture we allowed them to set up a display of the colorful product in our lobby—in fact our lobby is open for display by any other full page advertisers who would like to contact us," he said. Responses to the advertisement are mailed or left at the office of The Desert Sun and are collected periodically by the manufacturer.

"As far as using our office as a clearing house for the beautiful ceramic work of art, we also do the same thing in the use of box numbers for a great many real estate advertisers since we feel we owe a service to our advertisers," he concluded.

Judge Morton Able to Stifle That Impulse

It was a good motion—but it will probably be denied. In Riverside county court Monday with smudge smoke percolating into Judge C. K. Morton's chambers, Deputy District Attorney Robert Sikes of India formally introduced a motion that the court sessions be transferred from smudge-begrimmed Riverside to the smudge-free desert.

Judge Morton said he was tempted to grant the motion immediately but would restrain that impulse and take the matter under advisement. Court attaches said the motion undoubtedly will be denied if it isn't overlooked because the records are besmudged.

Realtor Suggests Change in Name Of Cathedral City

A letter to the city council this week from Samuel D. Arner, Cathedral City, requested council consensus on a possible contemplated name change of Cathedral City to South Palm Springs.

It was mentioned that in the event Palm Springs ever decided to annex that territory it would be much more expedient if the Palm Springs appellation were already affixed to the settlement.

Council referred the matter to Committee of the Whole to eschew at greater length, since there seemed to be no urgency.

Jean Coutts Mexico Bound

A recent message from Jean Coutts, former director of the Allied Artists association and well-known locally for her art work, disclosed that she, her daughter, sister and friend had left Ensenada for Manzanillo, Mexico, aboard the freighter Maria Dolores after which the group will leave by train for Mexico City.

PLATTER CHATTER

VICTOR: Victor has a new album that should please people who like music with a Gypsy touch . . . "Romantic Gypsy Airs," Emery Deutsch and his orchestra give thrilling interpretations of such numbers as "In a Gypsy Village," "At Dusk," "Kalitka," "Fishermen's Song" and "Song and Csardas." Perry Como sings a different and catchy little ballad called "A Dreamer's Holiday" . . . Reverse has "Meadows of Heaven" . . . Spade Cooley gives out with some good music in "I've Got a Heart Filled With Love" and "You Can't Take Texas Out of Me" . . .

COLUMBIA: Doris Day, one of the best young singers to hit the big time in a good many years, has a natural in an album of oldies, including "You're My Thrill," "That Old Feeling," "I'm Confessin'" and "Sometimes I'm Happy."

CAPITOL: Christmas is coming and the finest gift a child can receive is a good album . . . Capitol has three, with colored pictures and dialog to follow, that are especially fine for the small fry . . . They are "Woody Woodpecker and His Talent Show," starring the inimitable Mel Blanc; "Grasshopper and the Ants," with the original cast from Walt Disney's latest film by the same title, and Don Wilson as narrator, and "Bozo and the Birds," the latest in the happy little clown's adventures . . . Headliners Entertain At Luau

Toni and Johnny Boyle, in charge of entertainment for the Luau to be held at Thunderbird Ranch, Tuesday night, December 20, announced yesterday that Paul Valencia's Beachcombers will play for the affair. The Beachcombers rank among top flight orchestras and have played at Hollywood's Seven Seas, Palm Springs Chi Chi, etc. The Samoan Knise dancer (that Knise means sword) Tieuli will dance. Tieuli ranks as best in his field in the U. S. and gives a dramatic performance. Tani Marsh is the feminine dancer, a Tahitian who can carry a whole floor show by herself. The cast is rounded out with a sensational Hawaiian comedian, Keulea, who is well known on the gilt edged circuit.

The Thunderbird Luau takes up at 7:00 p.m. and will be a genuine South Seas Luau with all the traditional trimmings. It is being given for the benefit of St. Theresa Catholic school.

County Receives Official Sanction For Del Sol Road

Another step toward construction and completion of Rio Del Sol road connecting the Rancho Mirage, Palm Village and Palm Desert area with Highway 99 and Ramon road was taken Monday when supervisors received a permit from the department of interior to build the road across Agua Caliente Indian lands.

Entire right of way for the highway from Highway 111 to Highway 99 and Ramon road is now in county hands, A. C. Keith, county road commissioner, said.

Desert Associates and others who have long worked for construction of the road last week received the right of way from the Indians and the official permit from the department of interior this week removes the last obstacles in the path of the proposed highway.

Keith said that county equipment is at hand and that actual work to complete the road will start at once.

Santa Claus to Pay Visit To Cathedral City Dec. 22

Santa Claus will arrive a little early for Cathedral City children according to radio from the north pole just received by Principal Helen A. Emery of the Cathedral City school. Pre-school children are also invited to the festivities which will be held around the big decorated living tree in the school yard at 11 a. m. Thursday, December 22. Santa Claus has promised to be on hand to see that every child receives a gift as well as Christmas candy and fruit. Mrs. Emery has promised all the smaller children that Santa Claus personally will provide their gifts.

but at the same time any one who would like to assist Santa is urged to bring contributions to the school. In addition to the big outdoor tree, the individual rooms are having trees of their own. The holiday vacation period will extend from Thursday noon December 22 until Tuesday, January 3.

A feature of the school program this year is the cooperation with the Junior Red Cross to provide clothing for the Indian children at the Sherman Institute in Riverside. Mrs. Scott Thompson who is the teacher in charge of this feature states that the third grade children are now studying the life of the Navajo Indian. Navajo children from 10 to 18 years of age comprise nearly all the student body at Sherman at this time. While a limited amount of clothing is supplied by the government, there is a definite need, according to Mrs. Thompson. Donations of any suitable clothing, which must be clean, however, are asked. A special request is made for skirts and blouses for the girls and jeans and tee-shirts for the boys. Contributions must reach the school by Wednesday December 21, Mrs. Scott says.

Christmas Carols To be Featured By Girl Scouts

Christmas carols, sung by the Cathedral City Girl Scout troop, will be heard from house to house in the village on Christmas eve. Mrs. Marie Ide, Scout leader, states that adults who wish to join in will be welcomed at the Girl Scout club house on the school grounds at 6 p. m., where the carolers will meet. Anyone who wishes to have carols sung at some particular house are asked to hand in the names to Mrs. Ide at the post office.

Zephyrs Cancel Survey Activity

Last Saturday's gentle zephyrs prevented the operation of the survey party scheduled for Sun. air Park. Chairman W. R. Hillery of the park committee said that Prof. Kyle, Claude Cobb and Morris Ellinger turned out ready for work, but that they were asked to return next Saturday.

Woman's Club Plans Christmas Program Dec. 21

One of the outstanding programs of the year is scheduled for the Woman's Club next Wednesday afternoon at Town Hall, according to Mrs. Mildred Clark, vice president and program chairman.

Mrs. Andrew Lester, who is an Indian princess, will present authentic Indian songs and dances by a real medicine man and have on display genuine Indian jewelry, clothing, rugs, etc.

In addition to the formal program this meeting will be the annual Christmas party. Members and guests are asked to bring wrapped gifts to contribute to the fun of a grab bag.

Educator Rests In Cathedral City

Gordon S. Watkins, who has been named provost of the new University of California at Riverside, has just left after a two-week stay at Sunhaven Court. Accompanied by Mrs. Watkins, he has completed an 11,000-mile tour of eastern universities studying plans and organization, and paused here to write up his findings while absorbing some desert sunshine. He will take up his official residence on the campus in Riverside next month and he says that he expects building operations to start almost immediately. It is hoped to have the institution ready for the 1951 fall term, he states. Mr. Watkins has been connected with U.C.L.A. in various administrative activities since 1925.

Jewelry Business Sale Reported

R. Croom has purchased the jewelry business formerly conducted by L. A. Davis in the Linkletter building on Broadway just west of Glenn avenue. Mr. Croom, who hails from Texas after an interval spent in Pasco, Washington, is a skilled watch repairman of more than 20 years' experience. He will specialize in this type of work and expects to handle a large volume of repair business by mail. He is accompanied by his wife and two-year-old daughter.

Zoning Program Explained By County Commissioners

First of two hearings before the county planning commission covering adoption of a zoning ordinance for the Cathedral City area was held at Town Hall Tuesday evening. Full membership of the board was present: A. C. Fulmer, Riverside, chairman; Carroll Fuller, Riverside; Fred McCall, Romoland; J. M. Rose, Corona; C. C. Coffee, West Riverside; F. E. Lucking, Perris; Homer Varner, Indio; Mrs. Hazel E. Evensen, secretary; Planning Technician Douglas Black and County Planner Tyler Suess, who conducted the meeting.

Suess pointed out that the hearing was held at the request of a large majority of Cathedral City property owners who wanted Cathedral City to develop in an orderly manner and desired protection against undesirable buildings in residential or residential income areas.

ROUGHLY, the ordinance as outlined will provide for land on each side of Broadway for one or two blocks in depth to permit unlimited multiple dwelling, including professional offices, hotels, apartments, etc. The next two blocks to permit multiple dwellings such as duplexes and bungalow courts, and the balance to the south and southwest to be limited to single residence use.

Suess pointed out that as Cathedral City is in a resort area and presents peculiar housing requirements, there is a vast difference in the normal of commercial and multiple dwelling use permitted. There is only a comparatively small area in the south and southwest portion of the village restricted to single residences exclusively. He further pointed out that the ordinance is in no way retroactive as regards present usage. The ordinance will apply only to future building.

AS THE PROPOSED ordinance had been discussed at a previous informal meeting a few weeks ago, only a comparatively small group of property owners appeared at this formal hearing. These had special requests or questions which were in every case settled by the board in a manner satisfactory to the applicant.

The date for the second and final hearing by the planning commission before submission to the board of supervisors was set for December 27 at 2 p. m. at the court house in Riverside.

Around Cathedral City

Cathedral City Woman's club president, Mrs. James Wolseth, with Mrs. Carroll Waller, Morris Ellinger, L. C. Lewis and Claude Cobb are attending a series of weekly meetings on parliamentary law given by Mrs. George Wing of Banning at the Palm Springs Woman's club house.

Two carloads of guests from Desert Lodge attended the Desert Museum travel movies last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton are vacationing for a few weeks in one of the L. C. Lewis cottages. Mr. Middleton after spending five years in the navy, is now a law student at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Gilbert of Santa Cruz have returned to their Sunair adobe home for the winter season.

Miss Louise Desplaines and Valerie Stone and Mmes. Frank Mills and Vera Smith, all of Redlands were weekend guests of Mrs. Lola Sherrill. They were entertained Saturday with lunch and an afternoon at Shadow Mountain Club.

Mrs. Mary Wolseth, president of the Cathedral City Woman's club was the guest of President Mrs. Dietz of the Coachella Woman's club at their luncheon meeting on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert DaVall have their guests Mr. DaVall's brother Arthur DaVall, together with his wife and daughter Alice, who have driven out from their home in Kingsley, Pennsylvania. The visiting DaValls expect to spend most of the winter on the desert.

The Masonic club, together with the Eastern Star members held a Christmas party for members and their friends, at the Association hall on Pierson boulevard Tuesday evening. Frank Kibby acted as master of ceremonies and a fine program was provided.

Evalyn Potts has recovered her automobile which was recently stolen. The car was finally located in a parking lot in Los Angeles.

Lon Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Morgan, who has been a patient in the Riverside hospital for some time, is expected home for Christmas. He is reported much improved by the Sister Kenny treatments he has been receiving.

Chuck Whisenand, a DHS boy, now in the navy and stationed at Treasure Island, expects to be home for a Christmas visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Whisenand. The Whisenand family is planning a real celebration as they expect their five sons to be with them at that time.

Lee Hamilton Jr. and his wife, were weekend guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hamilton, whose home is on Buena Vista avenue.

DHS residents are constantly reminded that this is the Christmas season. John Hammer and A. W. Arnold have rigged up a loud speaker and are playing recordings of Christmas carols throughout the day at intervals of every fifteen minutes.

Alfred W. Gardner, a certified public accountant from Washington, D. C., is registered at an apartment in DHS. Mr. Gardner is looking for a location here as he plans to establish himself in business. He came to the desert seeking health.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fogeman of Seattle, Wash., made a special trip to Desert Hot Springs to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Coffee. The Fogemans are in the southland mainly to visit their daughter who lives in San Diego.

Surfacing of Pierson boulevard west of Desert Hot Springs, is progressing rapidly. The westerly section is completed and is now being used by traffic. The entire stretch between DHS and Twenty-ninth highway will be finished. It might be noted here that L. W. Coffee of DHS furnished all water used in the grading of this highway at no charge to the taxpayers. In all, over a million gallons of hot water at a temperature of 125 degrees F were used and at the current price of water here, that would amount to around $700 worth of water. This hot water which carries a heavy amount of sodium seemed to form an exceptionally hard crust on the road bed, thereby making an excellent foundation for the laying of the black top.

At the December 9 meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mabel E. Walker, president, presiding, plans were discussed for a Christmas party to be held on December 23. Rose Gaudiello of 435 West Acoma avenue was appointed as chairman with the power to select her own committee to work with her. The affair will be for members only and the program will be preceded by a brief business session.

W. G. Loomis, who was L. W. Coffee's first sales agent at the opening of Desert Hot Springs in 1940-41, together with his wife, spent the weekend in DHS. Mr. Loomis was amazed at the tremendous progress that has taken place since that time.

District Grand Master Kilpatrick of the I.O.O.F. Lodge visited the Desert Odd Fellows club in DHS last night. S. A. Wisnand is president. Sam Davis is vice president and Frank Cozad is secretary of the Desert Odd Fellows organization.

Newcomer Plans New Project

W. R. Hillery and Claude Cobb yesterday announced the sale of an acre of land with over 400 feet of highway frontage a short distance east of Cathedral City. This land is at the eastern edge of the section of highway frontage owned by Hillery and Cobb on which they recently developed a large well and the principal mains for a water system. The purchase was Lance Apple, a recent arrival from Florida. Apple expects to start development of the property immediately with the erection of a service station, to be followed by a court and business buildings. The sale includes an exchange of some highway frontage owned by the H. E. Petersens for land from the Hillery Cobb tract so as to provide an additional county road into Petersen's Desert Cove Ranch development.

IT SOUNDS NICE AND POLITE BUT IT COSTS ONE DOLLAR JUST THE SAME

Public relations by the police department—even in the painful procedure of giving traffic citations—are now being indulged in to the extent that most receivers of the pink slips now can smile or at least not be too bothered by the summons.

Out this week is the new pink slip with a picture of a bucking horse at the top of the page and the printed greeting: "Don't Be Upset, Our Apologies." Text of the "apology" is as follows:

"We are sorry you forgot and overstayed your time but parking meters are only impartial little creatures. Fact is, they don't even have hearts—we took one apart one day to see. Do you know what we found? Nothing but gears and springs.

"The bill for overtime parking is $1.00 and may be paid at the Police Station, 382 N. Palm Canyon Drive, any time, day or night. If more convenient, you may pay it at the Police Court, Palm Springs Airport, McCullum Way, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. week days; 9 a.m. to 12 noon Saturdays.

"Please make payment within 5 days of the date of this citation. Police Department."

So if you find one of these pink forms on your windshield resembling an invitation—that's exactly what it amounts to: an invitation to pay the truck fine.

association, has been acclaimed as "the greatest 'Carmen' of our lifetime." Combining great talent with personality and glamour, Miss Stevens will present a program of classical, light opera, and musical comedy favorites.

The Concert Series will close in April with the appearance of the pianist-humorist, Victor Borja.

"In presenting this new Concert Series to Palm Springs," Mr. Lester said, "we have made an effort to arrange a well-rounded program that will appeal to many different tastes. We feel that the Village wants and needs such an entertainment series, and we confidently hope that both residents and visitors will show their support of this venture through the purchase of season tickets."

PRICES ON THE SEASON tickets start at $5, including the tax. Other prices are $7, $9, and $12, with a limited number of "Patron Tickets" available at $25 each. These season tickets are to all four of the concerts with the same seat on each occasion. Only mail orders are being accepted at this time. With only 800 seats available, those interested are urged to fill out the coupon appearing in this issue and mail it at once to Box 22, Palm Springs.

Pollyana Opens Candy Shop Here

Looking on the bright side of things like a true Pollyana, Mrs. Fred Carlisle opens the Pollyana Candy Shop today at 325 North Palm Canyon Drive. Her husband, Fred Carlisle was stricken by a fatal heart attack on his return from Los Angeles two weeks ago, so Mrs. Carlisle will carry on alone.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle came here from Minneapolis where they established a reputation for making the finest ice creams and candies in the city. The techniques and formulas which made them famous, they brought to Palm Springs with them. The Pollyana Shop will offer a wide selection of the finest candy and ice creams.

Museum to Show Amazing Alaskan Film on Sunday

The Desert Museum will present one of the outstanding programs of the season tomorrow night at 8 o'clock when Carl H. Thomsen of Los Angeles shows his amazing new color film, "Alaska and the Yukon." Thomsen, who was awarded the 1948 home movie award for his picture "Rambling Through British Columbia," is well-known to museum audiences, having presented several programs here in the last two years.

In the making of his Alaskan film Thomsen spent almost $10,000 over a three-year period to obtain the unusual scenes it includes, such as King Island Eskimos carving ivory, and Mukluk (the salmon-eating cow). Some of the places to be seen are Big Diomed Island in Russia, Little Diomed Island in Alaska, Anchorage, Nome, McKinley Park, Dawson, Fairbanks, Naha Falls, Wrangell Narrows, Sitka, Juneau, and Whitehorse. There are shots of five finger rapids, of gold mining, scenes of the famous midnight sun, and a spectacular forest fire on the Yukon.

The climax of the picture occurs in the sequence of the breakup of the Knik Glacier, when from self-dumping Lake George 500 billion gallons of water break through the glacier and walls of ice over 200 feet high and cascade into the gorge. The film concludes with Northern Lights in color and moon.

In order to accommodate the large audience that is anticipated, this program will be held in the auditorium of the Frances Stevens school on North Palm Canyon drive.

Little Child

Dies at Hospital

Death yesterday morning came to the little Jesse F. Dodd baby, less than one week old, at the Riverside Community hospital where he had been taken Tuesday for an emergency operation. "Wendy David Darnall, the child had been born the previous Saturday at the Palm Springs Community hospital. Arrangements are being handled by Wiedel's and Son, local morticians with burial set for this afternoon at the local cemetery unless it is decided by the coroner that an autopsy should be held.

Child is survived by his par-

BIG CROWD TURNS OUT TO OPEN PALM HOUSE

Four BIG acts in three BIG shows nightly, drew a terrific BIG crowd to the Palm House for its opening Wednesday night. Everybody in town was on deck for the new floor show and everybody in town had fun! The show had everything from laughs to sex, and ranged through comedy, and mimic Don Cory, Crystal White, very cute and seductive, from Ken Murray's Blackouts—South American dancers Zoro and de Louis who appeared in a galaxy of colorful costumes, and a pianist Kary Keiser, a versatile artist who can skip from Bach to Boogie without missing a beat.

Max (who cares?) Dresner was there, of course, with his charming wife and daughter, over from the del Takquits to see what the Boot Hill Boys were up to. Asked if his feud with Palm House owner Vic Sudaha had cooled off during the hot summer here to be pushed around by the crowd in his bum joint just so I can see how bad his business is. That Sudaha—even with the place loaded here, not smart enough to make a buck.

In between floor shows the guests danced to Pat Barbara's orchestra.

KEEP CHRISTMAS MERRY PLEA OF FIRE MARSHAL

Keep it a merry Christmas was the appeal of Warren Heath, fire marshal, this week in outlining a few reminders for home Santa Claus.

"To help you keep it a happy holiday, here are a few rules offered by the National Board of Fire Underwriters for your safety:

1—Choose a small tree, it's just as pretty and much safer.

2—Keep your tree outdoors until just before Christmas.

3—Don't use paper or cotton decorations on or around the tree.

Alteration Bids Opened by City

Bids for the alterations of the former roller rink into a new hall at The Field were received and opened at this week's city council meeting.

Low bid of $51,630 was made by H. E. Foster, who was awarded the contract.

ents, three brothers, Clarence, Ralph and James and a sister, Eugene Snijmer.

A competent diet can be made almost entirely of vegetables, if milk and eggs are added.

4—Don't place electric trains around the tree.

5—Use electric lights, not candles, and see that all wires are in good condition.

6—Provide a switch some distance away from the tree to turn lights on and off.

7—Don't leave lights burning while away and watch them while home.

8—When needles start falling discard the tree.
